Jared - I spoke with Morris at length on Sunday, and he's asking for a conference call Monday to again discuss ads for the final week.

Happy to do that, but he's not going to be happy we're not following all of his recommendations.

We're short on time and Katie and I have a great plan in place, so I need some feedback from you on the best approach here.

Thank you!

You have him a call and that is all I asked for. I didn't ask for you to follow his advice to the tee. You heard him out and are making decisions

This story is not accurate. Given undetermined electoral outcomes in multiple states, and serious voting irregularities and lack of transparency in others, Jared has advised realDonaldTrump to pursue all available legal remedies to ensure Americans can have full faith in this election's outcome.

Can I shoot down this residence meeting?

1. recognition is growing in trump's inner circle that their effort to overturn the race call is an increasing long shot, with some urging him to keep fighting, but only in a limited way within the legal process.
2. Kushner has made nuanced arguments. Pursue legal fights, but in a limited way focused on transparency of the vote-count.
3. some advisers, including Hope Hicks, sided with Kushner during a Saturday meeting
4. the meeting was after the president's round of 18 holes of golf.
5. the meeting was in the White House residence
6. The president has teased in private discussions that his "liberal" son-in-law wants to do things a certain way.

Just tried you back!

Just sent this to the team:

Alexa - need to know which weekend shows, including this Saturday and Sunday, we can put lawyers on to talk Affidavits.

Chad - need to know which of our high-brow columnists (Thiessen, Hemingway, Hewitt, etc.) we can get to sit down for a virtual one-on-one briefing tomorrow so they write up summaries.

Singular goal: shift the narrative from "where's the evidence" to "wow that's a lot of evidence."

Thanks!

"These tremendous fundraising numbers show President Trump remains the leader and source of energy for the Republican Party, and that his supporters are dedicated to fighting for the rightful, legal outcome of the 2020 general election," said Bill Stepien, Trump 2020 campaign manager. "It also positions President Trump to continue leading the fight to clean up our corrupt elections process in so many areas around the country, and to build on gains from the 2020 elections so we can take back the House and build on our Senate majority in 2022."

"The American people know what's at stake. Thanks to our incredible supporters, we've been fighting tooth and nail to uphold election integrity across the country and defend our Senate Republicans in Georgia," said RNC Chairwoman Ronna McDaniel. "We are investing millions to push back against the Democrats' unprecedented power grab and drive a massive Get Out The Vote operation in the Peach State. The work we are doing today is critical to ensuring a better tomorrow for all Americans."

Can u Send ads to Ronna

Sent ads to Ronna but need to speak with you ASAP - I don't think I'm going to be able to get these ads up until Monday since it's already 1:30pm on a Friday and networks are brain damage on this stuff. The buyers working on it now.

Also, we have approvals from OAN and Newsmax but Fox and even Sinclair are still sitting on the approvals and won't give us a timetable.

Jared - attached please find the draft two-week budget for the national and state-specific cable TV and radio buys requested by the President and Mayor Giuliani.

I'm hoping to see the President first-thing Tuesday AM to make sure he's still on board with the creative and ad targeting, but I wanted to make sure you were aware of the price tag coming in just below $5M before I finalized anything.

Additionally, and this might seem like a small detail but I didn't want to make this decision without you, but in terms of paying Jamestown their commission for the small network OAN/Newsmax buy two weeks ago and then this new placement, what % should we pay them?

Their rate was 1.5% as of 11/3/2020, but we planned and invoiced the campaign at 2.0% for creative. Jamestown was on a tiered contract that decreased from 2.0% to 1.5% at the $100m media placed mark.

Thank you,

I would assume this is a continuation of the old work and keep it at the lower rate since I view this as an extra assignment they are unexpectedly getting in what should be an off or slow period. They have done very by campaign. Can u ask Bill as well as this deal was made during the Brad time...

Also - we should discuss to potus and make sure he has full transparency on cost and fees. Let's also discuss which entity it comes from and maybe ask Justin/Alex to review that Jamestown will receive the 1.5% as an extension of 2020.

POTUS has approved the buy.

FYI on our TV/radio ad buy...

We're ON-AIR on Cox, On Media, Ad Systems and Viamedia local cable systems in these markets:

GA:

Macon
Albany
Columbus
Savannah
Jacksonville
Greenville-Spartanburg
Augusta
Atlanta

WI:

Madison
LaCrosse

AZ:

Tuscon
Phoenix

Effectv (formerly Comcast) rejected the ads in all systems, and Spectrum has yet to make a final decisions, so we are not on-air in MI other than our national buys, and we're not on Effectv or Spectrum cable systems in WI and GA.

All national cable and national/local

Effectv or Spectrum cable systems in WI and GA.

All national cable and national/local radio running as scheduled.

In terms on gross dollars, we had $1.6m booked on local cable and right now about $600K will run, meaning we'll get about $1M back.

Important being we're tracking all this stuff closely.

Jared - Rudy and Co. want us to use our email list and social media platforms to put pressure on the four legislatures to call special sessions this week, and they're invoking POTUS' name in the approval.

Do you have any opposition to going in hard with the activist pushes these next couple days via email and social media?

Let Gary work up a plan on it for us to review. I'm not against as long as it's rational
